[00] Indicates points not scored, driver opts out or did not provide required dyno document

Because half the series was cancelled, it was decided no 2020 champions would be declared

As a reminder, if you are not classing your car based on a Dyno sheet you do not get championship series points. If you are in disagreement with the championship points please send a email to erichpfa@gmail.com with your concerns. However, the type of classing you are using did not affect contingency points for the weekend. Also, because of the abbreviated schedule as a result of thje COVID-19 pandemic, there were not sufficient events to declare class champions for this season. —Erich Pfalzgraf
